

New Letterpress Wedding Invitations by Gilah Press

JUNE 17TH, 2010

I was completely aswoon over the new letterpress invitations in the Gilah Press Wedding Album at the National Stationery Show last month (above are the two designs that I mentioned during my NSS Roundups), and I'm jazzed to be able to show you more from the new collection. From stitched embellishments and gorgeous modern pattern and type to beautiful palettes featuring colors with names like avocado, butter, silk, carrot, sangria, bubble, and flax, the new Gilah invites are a feast for the eyes!

In addition, all of the main papers used in the invitations are tree-free and either 100% cotton or a cotton bamboo mix. The colored papers and envelopes are 30-100% post consumer waste. The new collection will be available later this month at the following shops:

- Gus & Ruby: Portsmouth, NH
- Epitome Papers: Edina, MN
- Urbanic Paper Boutique: Venice, CA
- Lion in the Sun: Brooklyn, NY
- The Pleasure of Your Company: Baltimore, MD
- Printemps: Westport, CT
- Smudge Designs: Toronto, ON
