

Baltimore
MAGAZINE'S

Bride

WINTER 2008
WWW.BALTIMOREMAGAZINE.NET

Ultimate Guide For Brides In Greater Baltimore

THE LATEST
BRIDAL FASHION

428 Local Resources

AISLE STYLE

Great Ideas
For Your Big Day

91 Venues By The Numbers

PLUS:

Real Baltimore Weddings
and the Inside Scoop from Rehearsal Dinners and
Flowers to Makeup and Music

BRIDE 2008 $4.50

UNIQUELY YOURS

At Write Style we create unique and stylish handmade invitations tailored to your event.

Schedule an appointment to visit our studio and see how your invitation will become "Uniquely Yours!"

Cherry Blossoms

Write Style Inc.
1407 York Rd. Suite 215
Lutherville, MD 21093
410.296.7722
877.363.6668 Toll Free
www.writestyleinvites.com

Letterpress invitation and program by Julie Zerivitz for Gilah Press + Design.

or several layers of transparent paper. And for some, nothing but letterpress will do.

"People don't want the same thing that their mother had or their grandmother had," says Janet Kratfel, custom printing manager at Greetings & Readings in Hunt Valley. "Brides want invitations to reflect their personality and the formality of their wedding. In general, people are doing something contemporary, something that really stands out."

Of course, etiquette has always governed the world of wedding invitations. Multiple books specify everything from the wording to the precise paper size—5.5 by 7.5 inches.